

GOSPEL GREEN

THE ORIGINAL CYDER

GOSPEL GREEN REVIEWS

Matthew Jukes, Daily Mail

"Gospel Green Rosé is the finest bottle fermented 'cyder' in the UK. A very small addition of Pinot Noir is added to the top quality English apple juice and then it is fermented to make an elite fizz. This is one of our country's greatest drinks!"

Olly Smith, Wine Expert, Great British Food Awards

"Bright with a super-dry zing, perfect to serve in place of a top sparkling wine, or to pour with a cheeseboard for a real treat."

Gabe Cook, Ciderologist

"Perfect balance of soft, creamy acid and gentle, grippy astringency. Minerality and stone fruit all the way to the end. Lush."

Hugh Johnson, OBE

"It was perfect. Amazing mousse, then a thoroughly clean dry not over appley flavour. Congratulations on a really excellent addition to the potions at our disposal."

Valentine Warner, Chef

"Gospel Green moves cider onto a different level of engagement. I would be delighted to receive a glass in place of champagne."

Matthew Jukes, MoneyWeek

"It is amazing, forget all the pretenders this is the real artisan deal, handmade with skill and love."

Jilly Goolden, BBC Food and Drink Expert

"A delight. Everything you could want on a summer's day."

Jancis Robinson, Financial Times Wine Critic

"Sophisticated - a drink to satisfy the most wine fixated palate."
